

Go and Teach

V/CONFERENCE & TRAINING
AT HAINA GYI (APRIL 10-11, 2011)

CHILDREN GLADLY RECEIVED
WHAT THEY WERE TAUGHT:
BIBLE VERSES, STORIES

(fig. 1)

(fig. 2)

Children enjoyed playing game and memorising and reciting Bible verses.

(fig. 3)

The whole group showing keen interest in wholistic teaching (fig. 1); the participants excitingly listening to the significance of wholism (fig. 2); vibrant worshipers joyfully singing to the glory of God (fig. 3) above.

The pastor and a primary head verwhelmingly gave their feed backs with all gratefulness: "I guarantee full-house participation next time."

AN EXPOSURE TO THE NATIVE PEOPLE

The children of the Yin-net ethnic group in their traditional costumes.

AN EXPOSURE TO THE INLE PEOPLE, LIVING AROUND THE WELL-KNOWN INLE LAKE.

Setting out on a motor boat to the Inle

The Yin-net farmers coming back from their farm

Visiting the people called "Palaung" in their traditional bronze wearings that usually weigh 21 pounds

The trainees interestingly hearing a teaching on "Biblical discipleship & 21st cent. youth"

FIVE DAYS AT NYAUNG SHWE BAPTIST CHURCH

Celebrating the fast-ending days of fellowship signified with close relationship throughout the days.

A fruitful fellowship that rekindles our burning desire to find way to reach the “Taung-Yuu” tribes of 100,000 in all, who still worship spirits.

“A significant visit we ever have that warms our hearts with God’s love shown in deed” said the senior pastor.

A thanks-giving fellowship and solemn prayer at home on the very hour of arrival back home.
